

UTICA COLLEGE

Department of History

The Great Depression in the Mohawk Valley

The Great Depression and the Mohawk Valley
Sherri Goldstein Cash

Development Despite Disaster: Utica's Great Depression Government
Will Pluff

Making Solutions out of Problems: The CCC and Boonville Camp S-122
Sara Ryan

The Savage Arms Race of the 1930s
Jeffery E. Crippen

"The Remington Way": Advertising Arms and Ammunitions in the Great Depression
Greg Milewski

"Put Me on the Books" The Reciprocal Relationship Between the Italian
Community and Italian Business Owner in East Utica During the Great Depression
Jefferey Melo

Utica's Ward Two and Its African American Community
Nicolette DeMarco

Utica and Religion in the 1930s: Progression during Depression

Gregory James Hilliard

A Cry for Help: The Story of the 1933 Dairy Farmers' Strike in the Mohawk Valley

Chad Lusby

"The Battle of Boonville" and the Milk Strike of 1933

Lauren Peach

"The big wreath, the old garland of victory": Baseball and Syracuse in 1934

Robert Beach

Vietnam War, POWs, and MIAs: The War Continues for Families of Missing
Soldiers

Rocco J. Fanelli