“Chemical dependency is a treatable disease. Tully Hill knows many factors contribute to addiction and that successful treatment attends to the multiple needs of the individual. Based on the 12-Step philosophy, our bio-psychosocial-spiritual treatment and rehabilitation model includes exceptional medical and nursing care, extensive individual and group counseling, and family programs.”

from the Tully Hill website

Do you know someone in need of treatment?
Do you just want to learn about chemical dependency?
Are you concerned?
Tully Hill Treatment Center
Speaker: Monica Brown, CASAC-T

Thursday February 6th 1-2pm
DuRoss Family Dining Room
Please come.

Please register at: http://www.utica.edu/hr/wellness/lunchandlearn.cfm