

Program Curriculum Map
2012-13

Program: PSYCHOLOGY – B.A. or B.S.
Program Student Learning Goals Successful graduates from this program will be able to.....	Demonstrate familiarity with the major subfields of psychology.	Demonstrate an understanding of statistical inference and probabilistic reasoning as applied to psychology.	Demonstrate an understanding of how the scientific method is applied to sound research design in psychology.	Demonstrate an ability to communicate psychological concepts clearly and effectively in writing.	Demonstrate an ability to use American Psychological Association citation style, construct written reports conforming to APA style, and avoid plagiarism.

PSY 101	I/R		I
PSY 202	R		I/R	I/R
PSY 211		I/R/M	R
PSY 312			R	R	I/R
PSY 406	R			R
MAJOR ELECTIVES	R			R
PSYCHOLOGY ELECTIVES	R			R
TWO 300-400 PSY COURSES	R			R
SENIOR CAPSTONE	R/M	R	R	R/M	R/M
Curriculum Map Key	Place a letter in the appropriate box where the program goal is Introduced, Reinforced, and/or Mastered. I = Introduced; program student learning goal is introduced R = Reinforced; provide practice opportunities for the program student learning goal M = Mastered; demonstrated mastery of the program student learning goal. Some courses may have two letters (I/R or R/M) or all three (I/R/M) *Foundation Course A course that provides base skills needed to be successful in the program. Programs may not require or have foundation courses; it will vary from program to program.				