

Celebrating 30 Years of the Ethnic Heritage
Studies Center
at Utica College

Saturday, April 30, 2011 | 2 p.m. - 4 p.m.

Utica College Library Concourse

Join us as we celebrate 30 years of the Ethnic Heritage Studies Center at Utica College. On Saturday, April 30, the Center will be renamed in honor of its founder, Eugene Paul Nassar, professor emeritus of English.

The celebration begins at 2:00 p.m. in the Library Concourse, with entertainment and refreshments that reflect the rich and diverse heritage of our region.
