As an international student, we understand that you may face unique challenges throughout your career development. Following are some helpful tips and resources to keep in mind. Additionally, please be sure to reach out to The Office of International Education before seeking any form of employment (paid or unpaid) to remain aware of any applicable restrictions, requirements, and deadlines, including visa status and work authorization.

Where do I start?
- Identify and explore careers that are a good fit with your personality, skills, interests, and values
- Write a resume and cover letter
- Practice networking and interviewing skills

What can I offer employers?
(Adapted from the National Career Development Association, 2015)
- Cross-cultural competency and global perspective
- Adaptability and flexibility
- Problem-solving and critical thinking skills
- Language skills

Where can I work?

Top 100 U.S. employers who offer visa sponsorship in 2017 includes:
- Infosys
- Capgemini
- Tata Consultancy Services
- IBM
- Wipro
- Accenture
- Tech Mahindra (Americas)
- Deloitte Consulting
- Cognizant Technology Solutions
- Microsoft

Top 100 industries that have international workers in the U.S. includes:
- Computer Systems Design and Related Services
- Management, Scientific, and Technical Consulting Services
- Colleges, Universities, and Professional Schools
- Architectural, Engineering, and Related Services
- Software Publishers

HELPFUL RESOURCES

- Myvisajobs.com is the largest and most trusted employment website for foreign workers seeking opportunities in United States
- The US Department of Labor Office of Foreign Labor Certification generates annual reports on labor certifications
- LinkedIn's alumni search feature allows individuals to connect with alumni working in all industries worldwide
- H1Base educates and supports international workers and students from all over the world to obtain US work visa employment and sponsorship
- UC Career Connect, (powered by Purple Briefcase), is Career Service's career management system that allows students and alumni to search for jobs and internships, review career advice, and register for upcoming events

CONTACT US!
CALL: 315.792.3087
EMAIL: careerdevelopment@utica.edu
VISIT: 115 Moses G. Hubbard Hall
Open Monday - Friday, 8:30am - 5pm