College Code of Student Conduct

Utica College Code of Student Conduct
Utica College is a community committed to the principles of civility and fairness in pursuit of a purposeful academic experience. Students (residential, commuter, and online), staff, and faculty can expect that every interaction will be governed by the values of the college - lifelong learning, ethical behavior and integrity, honest communication, and the well-being of others. These are integral components of Utica College. The Code of Student Conduct articulates the connection between student behavior and these norms and expectations of the college community.

Each student is responsible for his/her conduct from admission to Utica College to graduation. Students are expected to know and uphold the Code of Student Conduct, as well as abide by local, state, and federal law. When the Code is not upheld, students will face action through the conduct process. While most alleged violations of the Code of Student Conduct occur while the student is on campus, students involved in off-campus incidents may also be charged through the College’s conduct process. This occurs when the alleged incident adversely affects members of the College community, interferes with the daily lives of local residents, and/or jeopardizes the College’s positive public relationship with the community/public.

The following behaviors are violations of the Code of Student Conduct:

1. Academic dishonesty which includes, but is not limited to: plagiarism, cheating, misuse of academic resources or facilities, misuse of software, data, equipment, or networks, or any act that hinders the academic process.

2. Academic and professional misconduct which includes, but is not limited to: misuse of academic resources or facilities, behavior in and outside of the classroom, misuse of software, data, equipment, or networks, or any act that hinders the academic process.

3. Participating in any activity that disrupts or obstructs the normal operations of the College or its members, or leading/inciting others to disrupt scheduled and/or normal activities. Specific examples of how the College categorizes misconduct in this area include, but are not limited to:
   A. Disruptive Behavior
   B. Insubordination to Faculty or Staff
   C. Noise Violation

4. Physical harm or threat of physical harm to any person(s). Specific examples of how the College categorizes misconduct in this area include, but are not limited to:
   A. Aggressive behavior, including behavior that is perceived to be forceful, hostile or attacking, which may occur either in retaliation or without provocation.
   B. Physical violence, including striking, shoving, or kicking another person, or attempting/threatening to do the same.
5. Harassment occurs if an individual engages in conduct (physical, verbal, graphic, written, or electronic) that is sufficiently severe, pervasive, or persistent so as to interfere unreasonably with or limit the ability of another individual to participate in or benefit from the services, activities or privileges provided by the College, or has the purpose of creating an intimidating or hostile environment. Harassment may include conduct that occurs based on race, sex, color, ethnic or national origin, religion, age, sexual orientation, disability, or veteran status. Harassment is not limited to the categories listed above, and may include obscene or threatening behavior and/or verbal abuse. Harassment does not have to include intent to harm, be directed at a specific target, or involve repeated instances. The College reserves the right to discipline offensive conduct that is inconsistent with community standards even if it does not rise to the level as defined by applicable law.

6. Any unauthorized use of electronic or other devices to make an audio or video record of any person while on College premises without his/her prior knowledge, or without his/her effective consent when such a recording is likely to cause injury or distress. This includes, but is not limited to, surreptitiously taking pictures of another person in a gym, locker room, restroom, or in any place where there is a reasonable expectation of privacy.

The act may be verbal, written or physical and occur on campus or within an area that affects the campus community.

22. Hate Crime - A person commits a hate crime when he or she commits a specified criminal offense and either intentionally commits the act or intentionally selects the person against whom the offense is committed in whole or in substantial part because of a belief or perception regarding the race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability, or sexual orientation of a person, regardless of whether the belief or perception is correct.

*Instances of academic dishonesty may be referred to the Academic Standards Committee by the Office of Student Conduct & Community Standards, and instances of academic misconduct may be referred by the Academic Standards Committee to the Office of Conduct & Community Standards for possible action through the student conduct process. Behavior by a student may result in both academic action and action through the student conduct process. As these processes are separate, the decision rendered in one place will not determine the decision rendered in the other. Please refer to the College catalog for a complete description of the definition and procedures followed for cases involving academic dishonesty.

Matters of professional misconduct are typically handled by the relevant academic department, unless the behavior is so egregious as to warrant it being referred to the Office of Academic Affairs.

This document will be reviewed annually, and periodically revised and distributed to the college community. The responsibility for review and revision of this document falls under the purview of the Office of Student Conduct & Community Standards.
